MONDAY EVENING, OCT. 8, 1900.

BISHOP THOBURN'S PROPHECY,-A dispatch from Chicago says: In his address before the Rock River conference, of the Methodist Church, Bishop Tho-burn said bluntly that he was glad the Boers had been vanquished. The rea-son he gave was that he believed it to be the will and plan of God that there should be no small states in the world, and that larger empires should subju-gate and absorb them. He hoped and believed that this process would go on until five or six large nations would comprise the globe.

He even undertook to forcast what they would be. First came the United States of America, extending from the North Pole to Cape Horn; then came the United States of Europe, the United States of Australia, the Russian Empire, the Indian Empire and the British Empire.

He thought that when this plan was realized there would be 6,000,000,000 people on the globe speaking the English ianguage and believing in the Christian religion. Then he wanted to see a flag pole ten miles high waving six miles from it a flag on which was in-scribed: "The Wide World for Jesus Christ."

I most cheerfully recommend it to the public." For sale by all drug-
